

I do not agree with big media's insistence on copy protection to the point of crushing my fair rights use. They want to obsolete the VCR and crush PVRs such as Tivo. Granted, there is very little on TV worth watching now, but I will not tolerate a further restriction of my rights for a service I pay for (cable/broadcast).